

Step 1. At the exit of the airport turn RIGHT. You will pass through a residential area before reaching a junction with traffic lights at the sea.

Step 2. Turn LEFT at the sea and continue along this road keeping the sea on your right. This area is known as Garitsa. You will pass the 'Corfu Palace' hotel on your left, the park and old town on your left, and the old fortress on your right before passing under an arch of the palace.

Step 3. Continuing along the same road you will pass a port on your right and the new fortress on your left. Continue straight ahead until until you will find a big round about. Take the first right exit and continue straight. You will see the exit of the main port and then a long strip of discos and bars, restaurants on your left. The road runs along the sea all the way.

Step 4. Shortly after the discos you will come to a large T-junction with traffic lights. Turn Right following the signs for Paleokastritsa. Continue along the dual carriage way through several sets of traffic lights. Just beyond 'Park Hotel' on the left which has a life sized boat outside you will come to traffic lights at a busy junction. You will see a big orange building in front of you. At those traffic lights turn RIGHT following the signs for Kassiope.

Step 5. You will pass Dassia and Ipsos. Ipsos is a coastal road with a long strip of shops, cafes, bars. The road narrows and starts its ascent and you will find a big turn. Continue straight ahead. This road will become narrow with several blind bends.

You will pass the village of Barbati then Nissaki. Continue until you reach a Gas station on your left and then only a few meters the Kaminaki Beach sign on your right.

Turn RIGHT, you have reached Kaminaki.
